LATEST NEWS

nDay as elective subject at the Medical University of Vienna

For the first time since its beginning, nutritionDay has been included in the university curriculum of the medical university of Vienna. Students will learn about the project and its results, they will help with data collection at the Vienna general hospital and they will learn how important nutrition care is in the wards. JOIN!

41st ESPEN CONGRESS: a great success for nutritionDay!

International nDay research was presented at the congress. We have met with all national coordinators present at the congress to discuss nDay achievements and future developments. Noemi Kiss (AT) received ESPEN Best Abstracts 2019 by presenting nDay data on nutrition and length of stay.
